

Hot water supplied by Veitur Utilities per month in its distribution area in 2019

Granting everyone access to a hot water utility with negligible outages is one of the prerequisites for the health of residents and flourishing economic activity in a modern society, as stated in the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations.

